One amazing story of bravery and determination is about a girl called Laura Dekker, who was born in Holland. Her parents spent a lot of their time sailing in different parts of the world, and Laura spent the first five years of her life on a boat. (1) ____ Her idea was to beat the record for the youngest person to have completed the journey alone.

To practise for the trip round the world, Laura planned her first voyage on the sea from Holland to England across the English Channel. Her father agreed, but wanted her to forget the idea of sailing round the world. (2) ____ She arrived successfully in the UK after 24 hours at sea. When she wanted to sail back to Holland, the authorities prevented her because of her age. (3) ____

Unfortunately, in Holland the local authorities also stopped her plans because she was too young. She had to wait one more year before she could start her voyage. (4) ____ The voyage was a success and took 518 days. (5) ____ She had to struggle in tough conditions during the trip. Laura was successful because she believed in herself and never gave up. Anything is possible – you just have to be bold and passionate about what you do.

- The conditions in the Channel can be very difficult, but she didn't change her plan.
- Finally, in August 2010, she started her adventure.
- At the age of fourteen she decided that she wanted to sail around the world alone.
- When she arrived back to Holland she was just sixteen years old.
- Her father flew to the UK, took her to her boat, and told her to sail back to Holland by herself.
