Astrid from Holland says that her house is perfect and she would never live anywhere else. So where does she live? Well, her home is a houseboat on a canal near the town of Tilburg. She moved there three years ago and says it was the best decision of her life. Her home has two bedrooms, a bathroom and kitchen of course, as well as a living room with big windows along one side. She can spend hours looking out at the calm water and countryside in the distance.

Astrid works at the local sports centre, which is only fifteen minutes from her houseboat. How does she get there? By bike, naturally! There are bike paths all through the town and Astrid doesn't have to cycle on any roads on her way to work. She also meets other cyclists and has time for a chat as they pedal together through the suburbs. No one is in a hurry, so they don't have to rush. The houseboat doesn't have an engine, so Astrid can't move it whenever she wants. In fact, most houseboat owners live in the same place for many years. Some of them create small gardens on the roof and even grow their own delicious vegetables and fruit. It's a very quiet life, but it's much healthier than living in a tall block of flats in the city centre.

- 1 Astrid's houseboat is ...
a not far from a town. c next to a canal.
b in a suburb.
- 2 Her living room has ...
a lots of furniture. c only a little space.

a cycles at high speed c uses some roads.
